

Part 24 Quota Allotment to Growers

- 24.1 Quotas held by individual growers are used to meet the aggregate demand of the domestic market within their quota class. Allotments above or below 100% of a grower's quota holdings may be issued on a period-by-period pro-rata basis as required by the market.
- 24.2 Pro-rata allotment in each production period will be issued as required to satisfy the provincial allocation. Subsequent adjustments to individual grower allotments will be made to account for all over and under production carried forward and all considerations that must be made to specific grower allotments resulting from adjustments to cycle lengths as per Schedule 5 and any other factors.
- 24.3 If there is no requirement to allot 100% of quota because of the level of provincial allocation, the reduction in the use of quota will be on a pro-rata basis within its quota class. Pro-rata allocation levels will be indicated on the grower allotment prescribed form.
- 24.4 The Board will not allot to a grower in any quota production period any class of quota or market development quota if such an allotment causes the grower to exceed the maximum quota that may be allotted in respect of a grower's registered premises calculated in accordance with Schedule 6.
- 24.5 The Board may issue to growers permanent increases in quota on a pro-rata basis to individual quota holdings at levels to be determined by the Board from time to time. These amounts will be added to a growers licence and will be subject to the declining transfer assessment of quota as outlined in Part 35.
- a. Quota holders have the option to refuse or accept permanent increases in quota.
 - b. Receipt of permanent increases in quota cannot be deferred. Offer and acceptance of permanent increases in quota are a one-time opportunity.
 - c. Quota holders are not eligible to receive permanent increases in quota for 12 months following a transfer of any quota, except in the case of:
 - (i) If a quota transfer does not result in an overall change in total quota holdings within a corporation or partnership, the corporation or partnership remains eligible to receive growth.
